

Table 1Scheme for the narrative analysis of the two cases*

Section	The intended aspect
The subject discussed and the general context	Brief description of the case Description of the context in which the related events took place (time and space)
Events in chronological order	The triggering factor Action development The climax The outcome
The characters and the scheme of the characters involved	The police and their representatives Author Casualty Witnesses Representatives of other institutions
The conflict	The main conflict that emerges from the texts Secondary conflicts
Topics addressed	The main topics addressed Text messages
Media frames	Thematic frames and episodic frames General frameworks (conflict, human interest, morality, attribution of responsibility, economic consequences)
Conclusions of the case	Reflections on the impact of the events and the way they were presented in the mass media
Similarities and differences in coverage of the event	Similarities Differences