Through signing this form you acknowledge that you have read and understand our editorial policies, procedures and instructions, and agreed to the terms of this License. Therefore, you certify that:

- the article is original, has not been formally published in any other peer-reviewed journal, is not under consideration by any other journal and does not infringe any existing copyright or any other third party rights;
- the article contains nothing that is unlawful, libellous, or which would, if published, constitute a breach of contract or of confidence or of commitment given to secrecy;
- you are the sole author(s) of the article and have full authority to enter into this agreement and in granting publishing rights to the Anthropological Researches and Studies' Journal, which are not in breach of any other obligation;
- the authors have taken due care to ensure the integrity of the article and also agree to follow ethical principles and procedures of scientific publishing. To their - and currently accepted scientific - knowledge all statements contained in it purporting to be facts are true (neither faked, nor fabricated) and any formula or instruction contained in the article will not, if followed accurately, cause any injury, illness or damage to the user; the work presents an accurate account of the research performed and does not violate any international ethical guidelines for research involving human subjects;

- you have not fragmented data pertaining to your article / you have specifically mentioned in the acknowledgements / author note included in the manuscript if data has been previously used in other article(s) and you have fully cited that work;
- all persons who are identified as authors have a significant contribution to the concept, design, execution, or interpretation of the research study and that it represents my/our original work sufficient for me/us to claim authorship;
- all authors have seen and approved the manuscript as submitted;
- authors agree to all terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International (CC BY-NC 4.0) License and Open Data policy.
- regarding the use of artificial intelligence (AI) tools in the preparation of the manuscript:

  ☐ no AI tools were used, other than standard spelling/grammar checkers and reference management software;

  ☐ AI tools were used, and this use is disclosed in the AI statement at the end of the manuscript (tool name, version, purpose) and, where AI was used as a research method, in the Methods section.

  The authors take full responsibility for the accuracy of all AI-assisted content, including the existence and correctness of all cited references, and confirm that no research data or results were fabricated or replaced with AI-generated content, and that no images presenting research data were created or altered with generative AI, except as part of a research method described in the Methods section. If AI tools are used at any later stage, including during revision, the authors will update the AI statement in the revised manuscript.

NOTES

− All authors and co-authors are required to disclose any potential conflict of interest when submitting their article (e.g. employment, consulting fees, research contracts, stock ownership, patent licenses, advisory affiliations, etc.).

− Articles conducting any animal or clinical studies should contain a statement in accordance with the animal and human ethics committee.

− Any animal or clinical studies must specify data on informed consent and ethics committee approval

The journal allows the author(s) to hold the copyright, to retain publishing rights without restrictions.
